Emergency Medical Technician (EMT)
Career Technical Training Area

Emergency Medical Technician (EMT)

The Job Corps Emergency Medical Technician career training program takes 7 to 9 months to complete and requires training in the following subject areas:

- Airways
- Patient Assessments
- Medical Emergencies
- Trauma
- Special Populations
- Operations

Certification:

Students who complete the Job Corps Emergency Medical Technician training program are eligible to receive the following certifications:

- Emergency Medical Technician (EMT)
- Health Care Provider (CPR)
- Blood-borne Pathogens
- Airborne Pathogens
- Incident Command System (ICS)
- Emergency Vehicle Operator Course (EVOC)

Program requirements:

Before entering the Emergency Medical Technician training program, students should:

- Be at least 18 years old
- Have a high school diploma or GED
- Have a valid driver's license or no barriers to receiving a license while enrolled
- Have a First Responders Certification

Average length of training/work experience:

- 7 to 9 months

The salary range for various careers as an EMT is:

$27,000 to $32,000/year

American Medical Response (AMR) Career Opportunities

Graduates of Job Corps' EMT or Paramedic training programs can be plugged directly into career opportunities with AMR, America's leading medical transportation company.

Through a training partnership with Job Corps, AMR makes job searches easy – connecting graduates to opportunities all over the United States.

THE BENEFITS OF JOB CORPS

Industry-recognized certification • Hands-on training and internships • Housing, meals and basic medical care • Earn while you learn: Biweekly living allowance • Administered by the U.S. Dept. of Labor

What is Job Corps?

- A residential career training program
- Your path to a career in a high-growth industry
- A place to earn your high school diploma or GED
- Career counseling and support after graduation

Career Technical Training programs vary at different Job Corps centers.

Administered by the U.S. Department of Labor, Job Corps is the nation's largest career technical training and education program for students ages 16 through 24. Job Corps is a U.S. Department of Labor Equal Opportunity Employer Program. Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request to individuals with disabilities. TDD/TTY telephone number is (800) 733-JOBS.

www.recruiting.jobcorps.gov • http://mifuturo.jobcorps.gov (español)